

18 January 1933

Honorable Sir:

At a regular meeting of the Executive Committee of the New Jersey Urban League for Social Service Among Negroes held on January 10th 1933, at the League Headquarters, 212 Bank Street, Newark, N. J., the following Resolution was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Col. Lewis T. Bryant has efficiently conducted the office of Commissioner of Labor since 1903, and

WHEREAS, by his neutral attitude in the enforcement of Labor Laws, he has shown a commendable sense of fairness, justice and equity and

WHEREAS, in our judgement an outstanding feature of his administration has been his manifest fairness to the Negro worker in New Jersey, thereby setting an example throughout the State and nation, especially relating to equality in industrial opportunities,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the N. J. Urban League, as a National and State Organization, whose executive officers are both white and colored people, record as the unanimous expression of this meeting that a resolution be sent to His Excellency, Governor George S. Silzer, respectfully petitioning and requesting that Col. Bryant be re-appointed and retained as Commissioner of Labor for the State of New Jersey.
